H. Pierce and family on Dolores street.

An interesting meeting of the Crochet club was held at the home of Mrs. H. T. Hoxworth in Long Beach on Thursday. A delicious luncheon was served at noon by the hostess at a beautifully decorated table where covers were marked for Mrs. Louis Bordeaux also of Long Beach; Mrs. S. S. Tannehill, Mrs. George Nahmens, Mrs. Z. W. Jennings, Mrs. George H. Koehler, Mrs. Pernia Piper, Mrs. Harry C. Roque of Keystone. Needlework and sociality reigned during the afternoon.

Robert Avey of Terra Bella, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Robert Whitney of Figueroa street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Tannehill of Dolores street, spent Friday in Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berry and daughter, Joan, of Hollywood, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Marks of Long Beach, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phillips and family on Carson street.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Heston and family of 218th street, left last week for Kansas and Missouri, where they will visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. White of Whittier, J. Cunningham and friends from Denver, Colo., were all guests at a chicken dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Cunningham and family on Amelia street on Sunday.

Friends here of Mrs. Ida Wisheart, formerly of Amelia street here, will be interested in her coming marriage to Jacob Biehm of Long Beach, which has been announced.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tomlin and family of Amelia street were guests at an oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DeChaney in Compton, on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brasse of Main street are spending several days on a fishing trip to Hodges Lake.

Roy Berry of Dolores street was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Roque on Grace street on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Koehler of Wilmington street were guests on Sunday of Mrs. Koehler's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. B. Loustolot in Puente.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Jennings and daughter, Barbara Jean, were guests of friends in Glendale on Saturday among whom was Mrs. S. Jensen.

Attending the Mothers' banquet given by the Junior High School Girl Reserves at the Y. W. C. A. building in Long Beach from Keystone on Saturday evening were: Mrs. John R. Hilpert and Mrs. George Nahmens as well as Betty Heston, Lillian Hilpert, Barbara Reed, Audrey Roque, and Ruth Nahmens, president of the Junior group of Keystone. Upon entering the banquet room a gypsy encampment was laid, where the guests received fortunes from members of the tribe. At the well appointed tables, tiny gypsy tents marked places for the guests and black cauldrons were used as centerpieces for the tables.

As a means of presenting the possibilities of the three Girl Reserve Summer camps the program of the evening portrayed Dame Fortune in the leading role. These camps are Camp Estelle, at Mount Baldy from June 21 to 28; which is under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Pond; Camp Torqua at Catalina Island, which will be held from July 1 to August 1, and may be attended for two week periods. This is under the direction of Miss Mary McDill. The third camp is the Stay-at-Home camp, Camp Peck-in, which is situated at the Y. W. C. A. at Sixth and Pacific in Long Beach, from July 21 to August 23. This is under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Knight.

Miss Frances Kennedy, president of the inter-club council was the gypsy queen and toastmistress of the evening. Mrs. B. F. Tucker, president of the Long Beach Y. W. C. A. opened the banquet with the invocation; Miss Knight, Girl Reserve secretary, in charge of the banquet gave the talk of the evening taking for her subject "Let's Follow the Roman Pattern." Other numbers on the program were: "A Gypsy Welcome" by Donna Hess; a Gorgio dance by Lorraine Lieder; a vocal trio sung by Mary McLane, Frances Kennedy and Harriett Sousa. "From Gypsy Strings" by Alice Calhoun, accompanied by Janice Stroppe. Adjourment followed and an operetta, "At the Fair" was given in the auditorium by the Esperanto Club of Edison Junior High school, and a dance was given by Dorothy and Ruth Culbertson, accompanied by Eloise Huggins.

Keystone folk will be interested to learn that E. F. Eyerard and Charles Eyerard, father and brother respectively of Mrs. Harry C. Roque of Grace street, have charge of the jewelry shop formerly owned by Fessard in the Baltimore Hotel, in a Los Angeles. They will be managers of three stores, one of which is located in Pasadena.
